III. REPORTS
A) Superintendent’s Report
   • Bridgehampton School was fortunate through Hurricane Sandy- no major damage from the storm, and thankful that our families and community overall fared well. The support of our school community to victims has been wonderful – students went to East Rockaway the day before Thanksgiving to help in the cleanup efforts with David Holmes and other staff members. In addition, the school and outer community has opened their hearts to a family who has been displaced due to the storm, and living in temporary housing in the Bridgehampton area.
   • Middle School Teachers will have the second of four sessions on differentiation in the classroom, by Dr. Laura Sagan, a Middle School and Learning strategies specialist.
   • Students in grades 6-12 attended anti-bullying sessions earlier in the month – the response from students was positive, and we will have another session on Dec. 7th for 6-7-8, and will follow through with all other students in the new semester.
   • Due to missed school – the newsletter will go out later than expected, but we are on it.
   • The preschool 3 class will return to the Pre-K building on December 3rd – parents of Pre-K 3 children were called by the District Clerk and Ninfa Boyd to let them know.
• I had my 3rd meeting with the State Education department, this week, to make mundane changes in the APPR report submission. Each time it is something else, but I believe that this will do it (although I believed that the last three times) – none of their request were substantive, and on more than one occasion I was asked to change back something I had been told to change before. I am now working with the same examiner, and we seem to be getting somewhere.
• Mr. Pryor is looking into Driver’s Education for the spring semester and we will have a plan in place by the next board meeting.
• Last but not least – and certainly something to celebrate – it is official – Bridgehampton is officially Middle States Accredited!

B) Principal’s Report
Mr. Pryor reported on the following:
• Evacuation Drill. This year’s drill was more realistic. Students and staff were loaded on busses and off the property in about 3 minutes. At the staged evacuation site, everyone was accounted for in less than 5 minutes. At 1:30pm the go-home early drill began and students were all accounted for in about 30 minutes.
• Honor Roll. Honor and High Honor roll lists are out and there will be an assembly / presentation Friday November 30 at noon in the gymnasium. About 45% of the students are on one of these lists.
• Dominick Grieco, one of our substitute teachers volunteered, along with several Bridgehampton teachers, the basketball team, cheerleaders and many high school students going too Far Rockaway to help with storm damage.
• Ms. Carrie McDermott received her doctorate.

C) Business Administrator’s Report
Mr. Hauser reported on the following:
• Main Building. The boilers in the main building are functioning and the tank has been replaced. A recommendation was made by the instillation company to have the water tested for acidity.
• Special Education Building. Furnace is scheduled to be replaced during December break.
• Old Café. Electricians will be removing kitchen appliance electrical conduit. The room will be painted and furniture will be ordered.
• Facility Room. Looking into new kitchenette cabinets, organizing and painting the room.
• Playground. All of the chains on the swings and tire swing have been fixed and/or replaced.
• Business Department. Reviewing the requirements for the employee medical cost and how they are to appear on the annual W-2 forms. Deadline is January 31, 2013.
