III. REPORTS
A) Superintendent/Principal Report
   • Interviewed several strong candidates for .6 Special Education Teacher position for Hayground School with Ken Giosi. Ready to offer position advising candidate they would need to be in attendance at the Superintendent Conference Days on September 3 & 4.
   • Student packets going out either this week or the beginning of next week at the latest, per Christine Harrison
   • Upon Jennifir Cunningham starting next week, teacher packets will go out hopefully by the end of the week
   • Have decided to send out the Code of Conduct as a separate mailing to students’ parents with emphasis on new updates to the attendance policies
   • Will also update parents on the new safety system to be put in place
• Will also address attendance policies at Open School Night; stressing the importance of the new policies to the parents and the importance of arriving on time
• State Education Department report states that we are a school in “Good Standing”; despite results. Scores look grim; but will review in full and present full analysis once completed in September or October
• Will present Teacher analysis as well; BOCES has program to assist with this.
• Moving into new office next week

B) Business Administrator’s Report:
• In the process of making the transition from one year to the next; auditors starting on Monday, September 9.
• Thank you to Doug DeGroot for the work on the tennis courts
• Installation of new fire alarm, public address, clock systems presently being installed
• Dr. Favre’s and Jennifir Cunningham’s new offices nearing completion to be ready for them by next Monday.
• Finalizing the details for transportation to Mercy
• Summer projects continue on schedule.
