III. REPORTS

A) Superintendent/Principal’s Report

- Guidance has completed the master schedule – we will be working tomorrow to complete the elementary schedule that gets worked into it – according to the BTA contract, all elementary teachers have a duty free period 10th period – which means that secondary teachers cover the elementary as a duty. This year we worked hard to make it very meaningful for students. With the growing numbers in the elementary classes, the hardest part of all of this is finding a room that fits the students – next year we will need 6 secondary teachers to cover all classes. Last year we combined 3-4-5 and only needed four – this year we can only combine 4 and 5 (needing 5 teachers) and next year they will all be too big to combine so we will need 6 teachers.

- Working on the schedule for Superintendent’s conference day – we hope to kick off the year with some team building exercises, that reinforce the positive climate we are looking to continually improve upon. Monday – we will also be working on training for teachers in PreK-5 on writer’s workshop out of Columbia University – we have a trainer coming in to train the teachers on the second day – secondary will be working on facilitated data workshops where we review testing data to determine areas of focus for the new school year.

- The PBIS team has been awarded a grant by Paddler’s for Humanity to continue our great work on PBIS – we will be planning a huge kickoff for the fall – and hope to engage the community in the effort as well.

- I’m meeting with Sean Sharp tomorrow to discuss next steps in the rollout of Chromebooks to secondary students.

- We have interviews set up for Friday for the Athletic Director – if any board member is interested in sitting in on the interviews, they will begin at 9AM in the district office, let us know and we will provide the applications for you.

- Bob is out = but the Morgan building is under way and the playground begins tomorrow I believe – painters are nearly finished as well – and we have a contract for the building sealing to review in exec session and approve this evening – the architect dropped it off late this afternoon.

- Tonight you will be approving the addition of two teacher aides (program aides, as per student IEPs) the candidates are exceptional and received rave reviews from their references – both are certified teachers – one having a specialty in applied behavior analysis – which will be needed in the kindergarten classroom this coming fall.

- Jen has worked to get all of the mailings ready to go home – we are waiting for the list of bus stops, and it will be ready to go out.

- Christine and Danielle Doscher are working on solidifying schedules- the PowerSchool rollover to the 2014-2015 school year was completed yesterday.
• Rock Camp seems to be going well. I’m hoping to attend their concert on Friday.
• Drama ended with a terrific performance of “Tikki Tikki Tembo” – rave reviews by parents regarding the program – students had a great time
• Young Farmers also going well – as is tennis
• I’d like to set a meeting up to establish board goals, and do some training – in light of our new members – will the week of August 12th work? Can we do Wednesday the 13th – early evening – dinner provided?
