

January 18 SEPTO meeting7PM (6:30 PM Meet & Greet)

Amy Deaver of Gluten Free Long Island and Chef Christine present Gluten Free 101 workshop. Learn more about a gluten free diet, and see if this is for you. Workshop focuses on those new and curious about gluten free diets and the experienced. This workshop will be held at the Tuckahoe Elementary school in Southampton.

February 4th Kids Outing2 PM

Paws for Autism & Special Needs

EESEPTO outing at the Southampton Animal Shelter

A new therapy program offered at the Shelter for children with a disability. Individual time spent with shelter pets, different scents, sounds and touch as well as the bond with the trusting animal.

There is no charge, but registration is required eastendsepto@aol.com

March 8 Kids Outing4PM – 7 PM

EESEPTO family outing at Safari Adventure.

$12 dollar admission includes playtime, pizza, beverage and tokens.

This is a mini fundraiser to benefit the East End SEPTO

Scholarship is available, email eastendsepto@aol.com

March 20 Teacher Training4 PM

Lynn Burke presents Walk In Their Shoes. This workshop will help teachers understand what it is like for a child with a special need by taking a walk in their shoes. This interactive workshop is not to be missed. This workshop will be held the PTC in Southampton. Staff Development Hours are awarded. There is no fee, but we encourage teachers to become an East End SEPTO member ($10.00 fee for the year)

March 20 SEPTO MEETING7PM (6:30 PM Meet & Greet)

Lynn Burke presents Walk In Their Shoes. This workshop will help parents, family members and teachers understand what it is like for a child with a special need by taking a walk in their shoes.

This interactive workshop is not to be missed. Bring your family and teacher! This workshop will be held at Pierson High school in Sag Harbor

April 18 SEPTO MEETING7PM (6:30 PM Meet & Greet)

Christina Caciappo Bertsch presents an evening full of information about Transitioning. Learn when to start taking steps and make choices to ensure the most successful transition after High School. Be prepared and informed for the choices and options your child faces and prepare for transition. This presentation will be held at the Bridgehampton School in Bridgehampton.

May 7 Teacher Training

4 PM

An informative presentation about Sensory Friendly classrooms. Speaker: Tina Mendoza of the Sensory Center of Occupational Therapy. This workshop will be held the PTC in Southampton. Staff Development Hours are awarded. There is no fee, but we encourage teachers to become an East End SEPTO member ($10.00 fee for the year)

May 11 Kids Outing4 PM – 6 PM

EESEPTO outing at CMEE

Join us for an afternoon of active and pretend play, creative activities, a special Mother's day craft and lots of fun! Bring a friend!

$ 9.00 admission.

May 16 SEPTO MEETING7PM (6:30 PM Meet & Greet)

Dr. Sagit Vishnia will help parents understand how to discuss their child's disability. Who do you share it with, what do you share, are you ready and informed to talk to your child about his/her disability? Be ready for the conversation! This workshop will be held at CDCH in Easthampton.

June 9 Kids Outing2PM – 4 PM

EESEPTO outing at the Green School.

SEPTO families and siblings are invited to socialize with other SEPTO members while feeding the animals at the farm.

Registration is limited. First come first serve.

Register at eastendsepto@aol.com

$10.00 per child